Property Overview

DO NOT DISTURB TENANT.

A fully operational drive-thru restaurant in a prime Albuquerque location is now available. Recently renovated in 2023, the property includes all restaurant equipment, offering a turnkey solution for an owner-operator.

Strategically located just a mile south of the bustling Las Estancias retail center, the property benefits from high visibility on Coors Blvd, with 20,000 vehicles passing daily. The surrounding area is under-served yet features a dense residential population, making it ideal for capturing a loyal customer base.

Restaurant is move-in ready and can be delivered vacant.

Location Overview

The South Valley sub market of Albuquerque is a rapidly growing area with a rich cultural heritage and strong community ties. This area is predominantly Hispanic, with a younger median age of 31 years and a high home ownership rate of 72% within a 3-mile radius, significantly above the city average. The South Valley also presents a significant retail supply-demand gap, estimated at $300 million, indicating strong potential for future economic growth and development.

THE LARGEST CITY IN THE LAND OF ENCHANTMENT

Located at the heart of New Mexico where Interstate-25 intersects with Interstate-40, Albuquerque is the state's most populous city and a critical transportation hub in the Southwest, thanks to the ABQ International Sunport and BNSF railway. The city hosts the University of New Mexico, its flagship institution, along with Central New Mexico Community College (CNM), both contributing to a highly educated workforce. Renowned for its cultural diversity and rich history, Albuquerque also hosts the internationally famous International Balloon Fiesta. Key institutions like Sandia National Laboratories and Kirtland Air Force Base—the 6th largest in the U.S.—are situated in the Southeast Heights, providing stable employment opportunities. Boasting over 300 days of sunshine annually and an affordable cost of living, Albuquerque offers a vibrant quality of life at the heart of the Southwest.
